01 Introduction

India's freedom struggle was carried forward by leaders with different methods but a common goal — independence from British rule.

02 Leaders and Contributions

A few of the many leaders and their key contributions are listed below.

- Mahatma Gandhi — non-violent mass movements
- Jawaharlal Nehru — Purna Swaraj and nation-building
- Subhas Chandra Bose — Indian National Army
- Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel — integration of princely states
- Dr B. R. Ambedkar — social justice and the Constitution

Leader	Movement / role	Key year
Mahatma Gandhi	Salt March	1930
Subhas Chandra Bose	INA	1943
Bhagat Singh	Revolutionary movement	1931
Sardar Patel	Integration of states	1947–49

03 Women in the Freedom Struggle

Women such as Sarojini Naidu, Rani Lakshmibai, Aruna Asaf Ali and Kasturba Gandhi played leading roles in protests, organisation and leadership.

Remember

Remember each leader with one key contribution and one key year.

04 Revolutionary Movements

Revolutionaries such as Bhagat Singh, Chandrashekhar Azad and Ram Prasad Bismil inspired the youth through their courage and sacrifice.

05 Conclusion

The freedom we enjoy is the result of the sacrifices of countless known and unknown people. Remembering them inspires us to protect our democracy.
